

Call for Proposals

NAECTE Summer Conference

June 3, 2019

8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Long Beach, CA

Please plan to join the NAECTE conference in June, 2019. The National Association of Early Childhood Teacher Educators is accepting proposals for the 2019 Summer Conference. The goal of the organization is to enhance and facilitate early childhood faculty research and professional development.

We propose the following theme for our summer presentations: Leadership and Global Perspectives in Early Childhood Teacher Education. Our theme encompasses a broad spectrum of possibilities for exploration to encompass our unique perspectives, research, and stories from the field.

All presenters should plan to register and pay for the NAEYC Professional Learning Institute. All NAECTE submissions must be received by February 22, 2019 and will be notified of acceptance by March 25, 2019.

All proposals undergo a blind review process and are evaluated on overall quality. The scoring rubric considers alignment of the proposal with the conference theme, suitability for proposed format, quality and organization of proposal information, potential for a high quality session, and relevance to important early childhood teacher education issues.

NAECTE now accepts presentations electronically using the secure Jot Form. Please follow the following link to submit the required content. We look forward to seeing your proposal.
